Dear Mr. Khalil,

This letter is to call your attention to an issue at San Diego International Airport (Lindbergh Field), California during the week of June 8-15, 2008.

The US Open Golf Tournament is being held this year in the San Diego, CA area during the above timeframe. The Federal Aviation Administration's Air Traffic Control facility is expecting a substantial increase in the number of charter and general aviation aircraft that will want to RON at various public use airports in the San Diego area.

San Diego International Airport has a daily departure curfew for all aircraft. There is no arrival curfew. The departure curfew hours are 10:00 PM until 7:00 AM daily for aircraft FAA certificated Stage 2, and from 11:30 PM until 6:30 AM for aircraft FAA certificated Stage 3 (See FAA AC 36-1H). Any aircraft, air service, air cargo, charter or general aviation that departs during the nightly curfew period is subject to a $2,000 fine.

There will be no waiver of this time-of-day restriction for any operation except Lifelight and flights of military necessity pre-coordinated with the San Diego International Airport Noise Mitigation Department or Airside Operations.

Further information regarding the daily curfew restriction is available online at

Please give this document the widest dissemination in your flight operations departments and to your constituents.

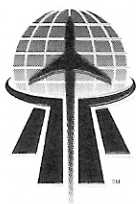

Thank you for your attention to this detail.

Sincerely,

Dan Frazee

Director, Airport Noise Mitigation
